

HERITAGE SOCIETY OF AUSTIN

University of Texas Campus Hunt

Tour Description

Begin your tour with lunch in a classic Austin establishment. Dirty Martins is a tradition for the campus area and University students. Continue your walk by All Saints Church, by the Littlefield House and onto campus. Take a tour of the main building. With a reservation you can take a tour of the tower. Walk around the East and South Malls and towards the Littlefield Fountain. Head back to Battle Hall and then down the West Mall and along Guadalupe Street. It is a unique and truly Austin experience.

Your Name:

Address:

Phone:

Location	Photo	Address/website	Hours of Operation	Admission	Questions
Dirty Martins Recently honored by the Heritage Society, this is a classic Austin eatery with a laid back campus feel.		2808 Guadalupe Street 477-3173 dirtymartins.com	11 am to 11 pm Mon - Sun	None	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>When did the restaurant first open?</li> <li>What is a sissy burger?</li> <li>Where did the name "Dirty's" come from?</li> </ol>
All Saints Church Originally built as a chapel for Episcopal Women attending the university, currently is a thriving parish with deep ties to the community.		209 West 27th 476-3589 allsaints-austin.org		NA	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>When was the church originally built?</li> <li>Who is buried here?</li> </ol>
Littlefield House The home of Major George Littlefield and his wife Alice was deeded to the University and is currently used for receptions and offices.		Corner West 24th and Whitis	Interior not open to public	NA	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>What rank did Littlefield achieve in the Confederate army?</li> <li>What architectural style is the house?</li> <li>What careers did Littlefield have?</li> </ol>

Main Building Built in 1936 as the main library of the University, this building represents the heart and image of the School. The Tower boasts sweeping views.		Inner Campus Drive	Mon - Sun Tower tours by reservation only 475.6633	NA	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What will set you free?</li> <li>2. How many times an hour do the bells ring?</li> <li>3. Are there still books housed here ?</li> </ol>
Battle Hall Designed by New York Architect Paul Cret, this was the first bldg on campus to use the Spanish Revival style, all other buildings were to emulate it.		South Mall	Mon - Sun	NA	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What library is in this building</li> <li>2. When was it built?</li> <li>3. What color are the front doors?</li> </ol>
Littlefield Fountain and S, E and W Malls These tree-lined open spaces provide a place for students to relax, study or just rush to class. Statues represent great figures in American history			Mon - Sun	NA	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. How many statues are on the malls?</li> <li>2. Whose statue is the most recent.</li> <li>3. Whose statue is in the middle?</li> </ol>
The Drag The commercial heart of the area, the drag provides everything from books to boutiques. You can pray, eat and people watch in one place.					<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What is the "real" street name?</li> <li>2. What is on what used to be 23rd St?</li> <li>3. How many churches are on the street?</li> </ol>